

Municipal Spatial Information System

The MSIP Observatory mapping portal was created as a communication channel, enabling the Municipality of Krakow to communicate with residents, entrepreneurs and investors.

Its main goal is to publish up-to-date, reliable data in order to promote sustainable development, raise the residents' awareness and maintain the continuous improvement of the quality of life in the city.

Our Users

80,000

Users a year

1500

Users on an average business day

2000

EU users (from January to June 2018)

Our Data

11 Maps compositions

80 Data sets

270 Layers

Change map composition

Urban space and planning

Noise map 2012

Reported coal furnaces

Map for architects and

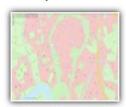

Noise map 2017

User's maps

Residents portal

Development and protection

All data

×

Historical maps

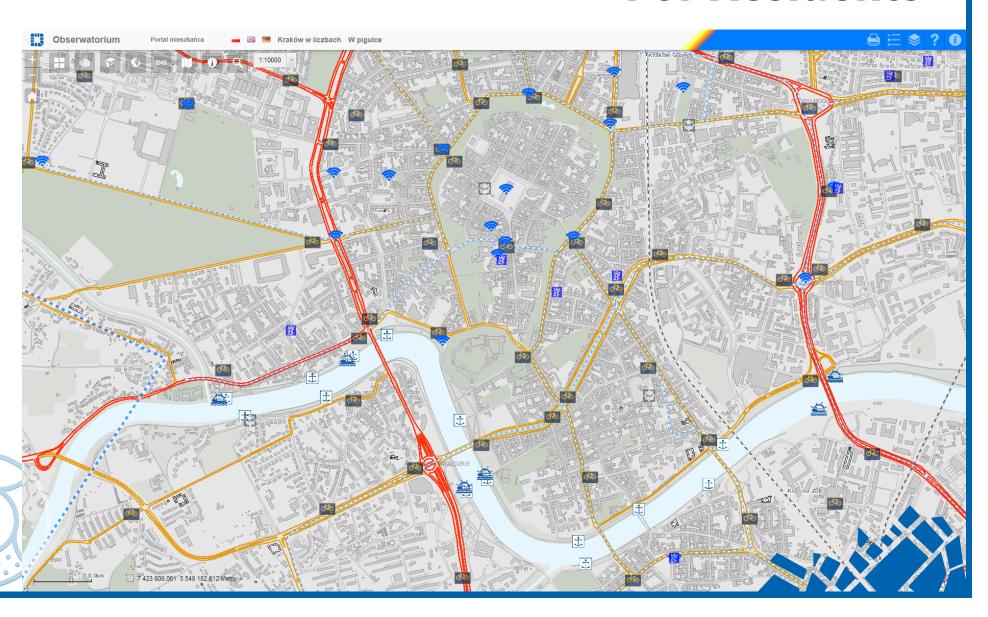

Urban tree management

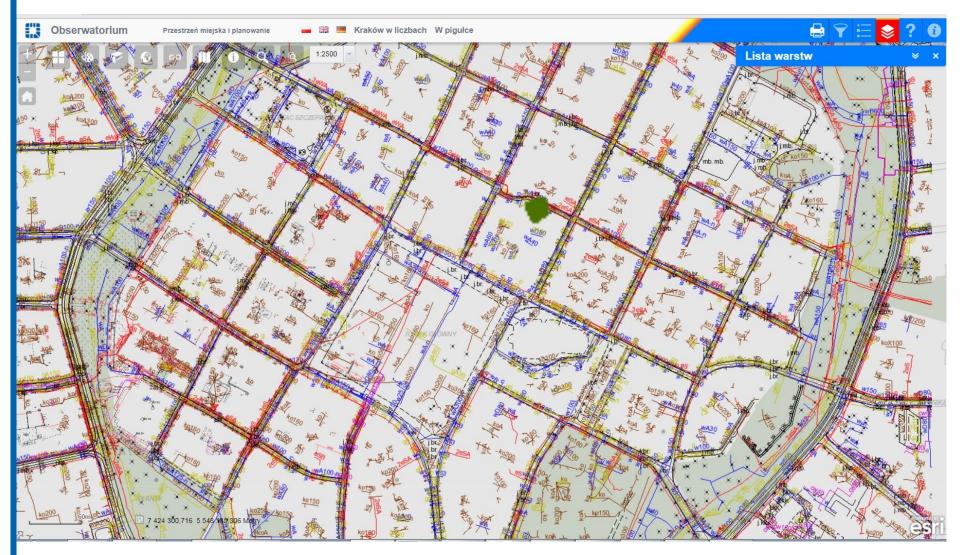

For Residents

- City bike
- Schools, kindergartens and nurseries
- Libraries
- Parking zones
- Police stations
- Hospitals

For Surveyors, Architects and Planners

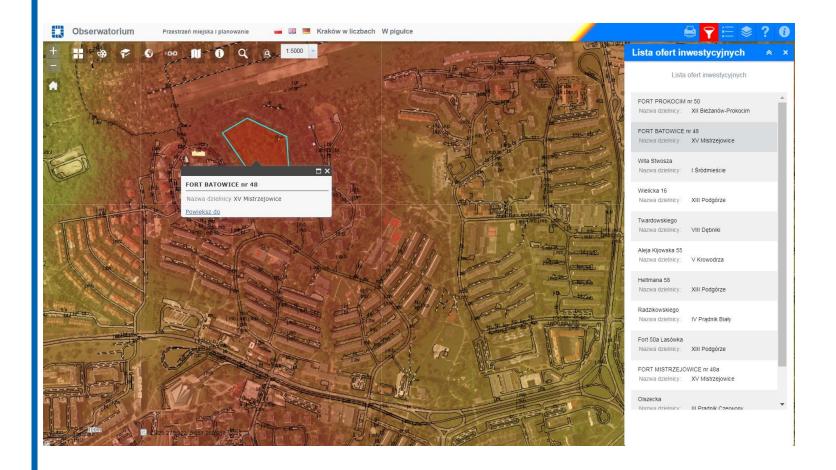

- Parcels and buildings
- Pipelines, water supply system, sewers etc.
- Building permits

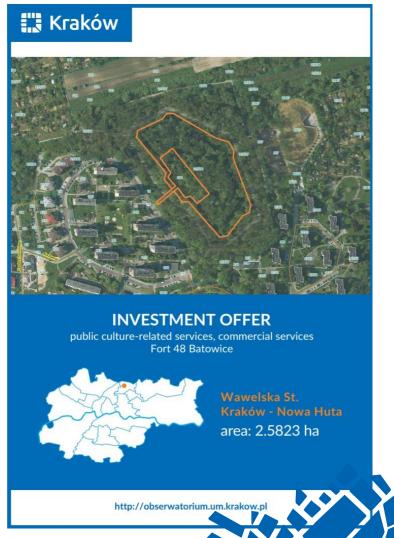

For Investors

• List of investment offers prepared by the Kraków City Hall

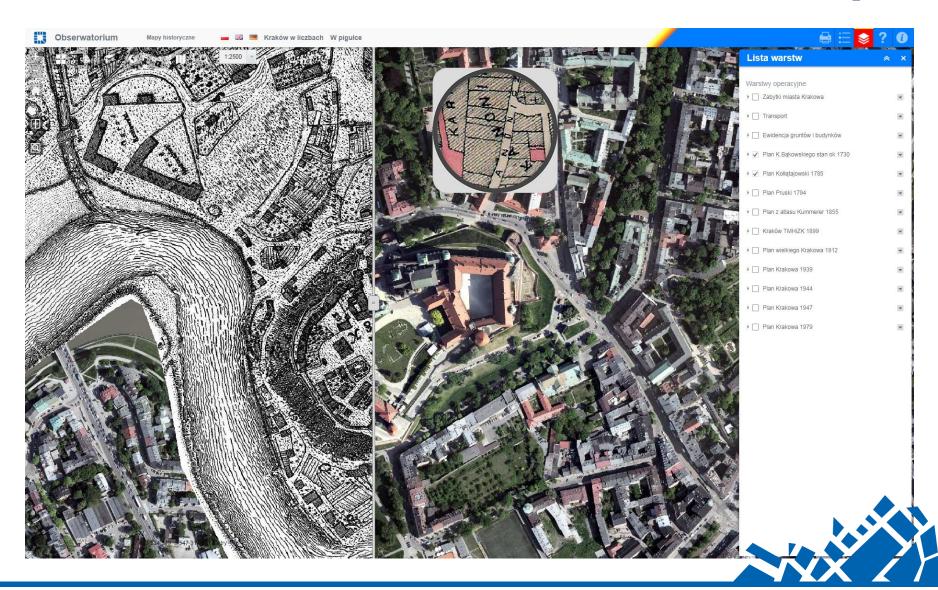

Historical Maps

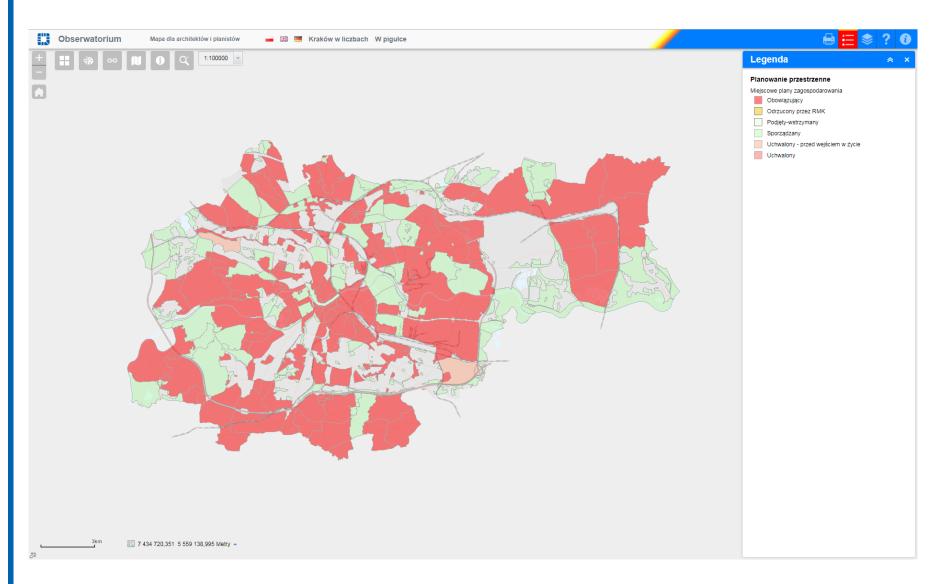

The possibility to compare Kraków's maps and plans from different historical periods

Spatial Planning

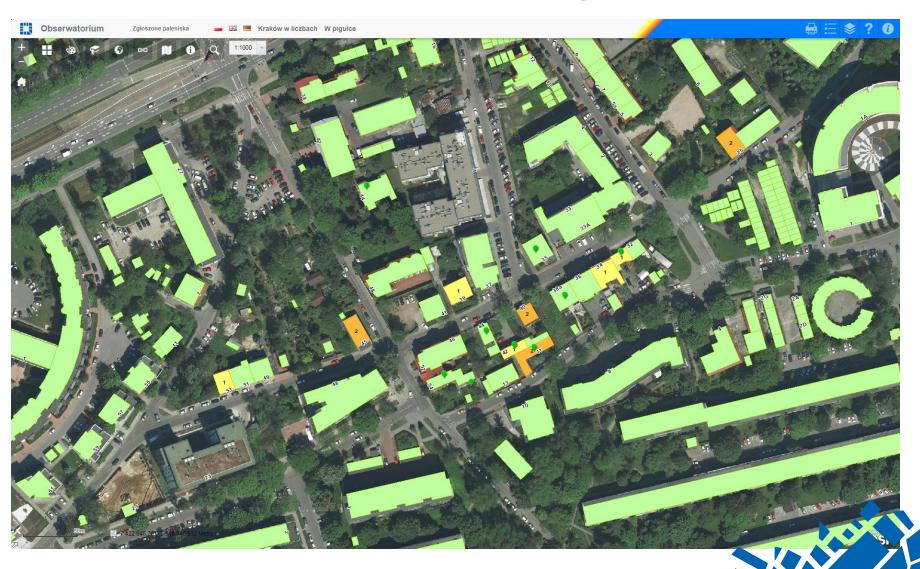

Current and processed spatial development plans

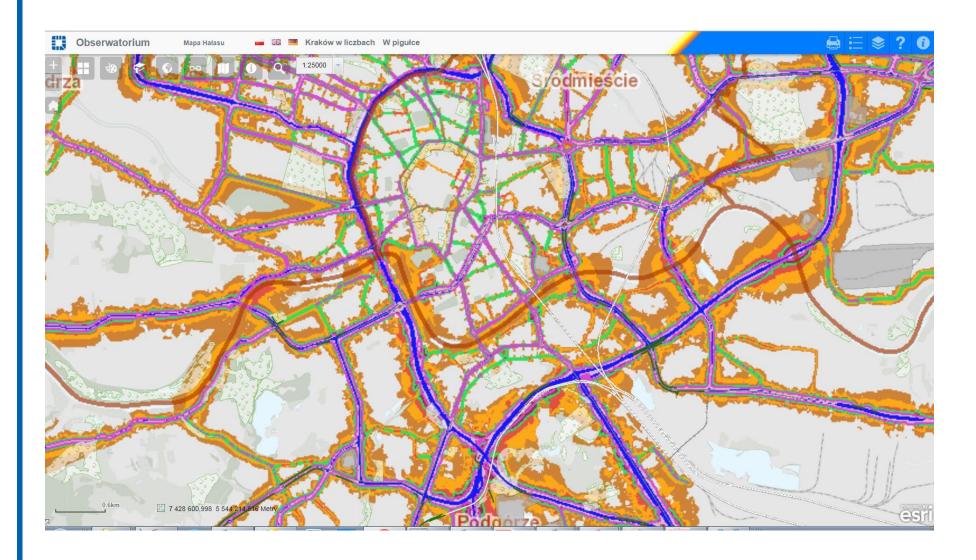

Inventory of Coal Furnaces

Location of buildings where old type furnaces are being replaced with environment-friendly heating systems

Noise Maps

Map of areas with excessive road, rail, tram and industrial noise threat

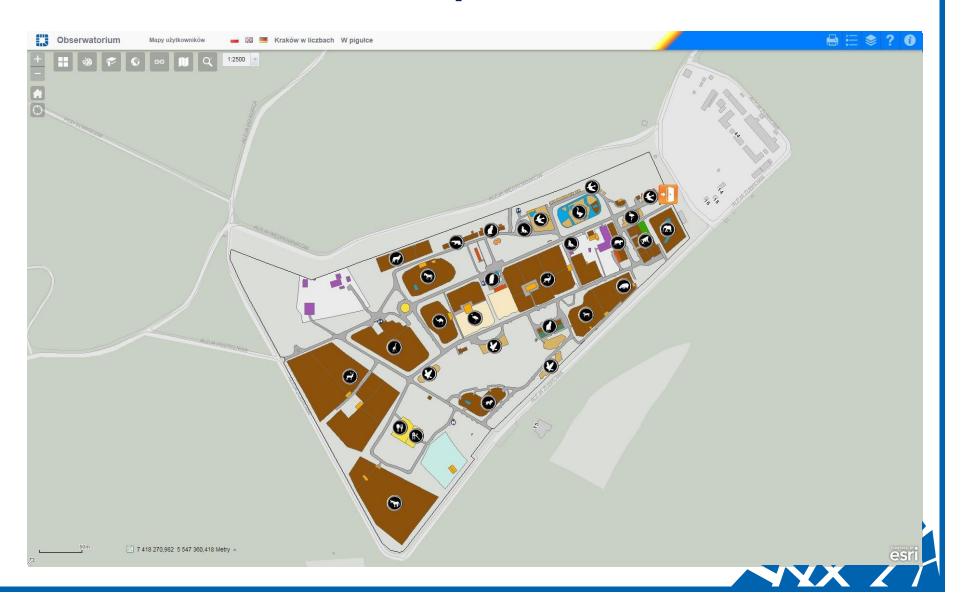

Cooperation with Universities

A map of the Krakow Zoo, created by students, as a part of their project

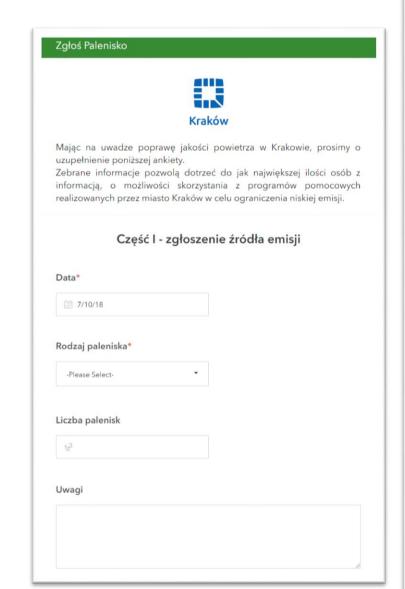

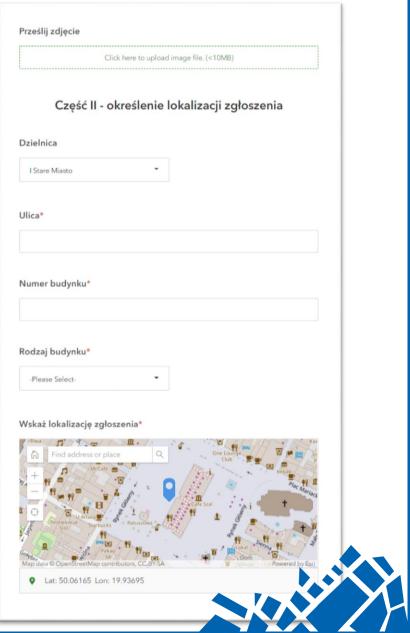

Interaction with Residents

"Report a furnace" form:

- 640 notifications
- Supporting the fight against smog
- Completing the city data
- Encouraging the involvement of residents

Our Future

Mobile application

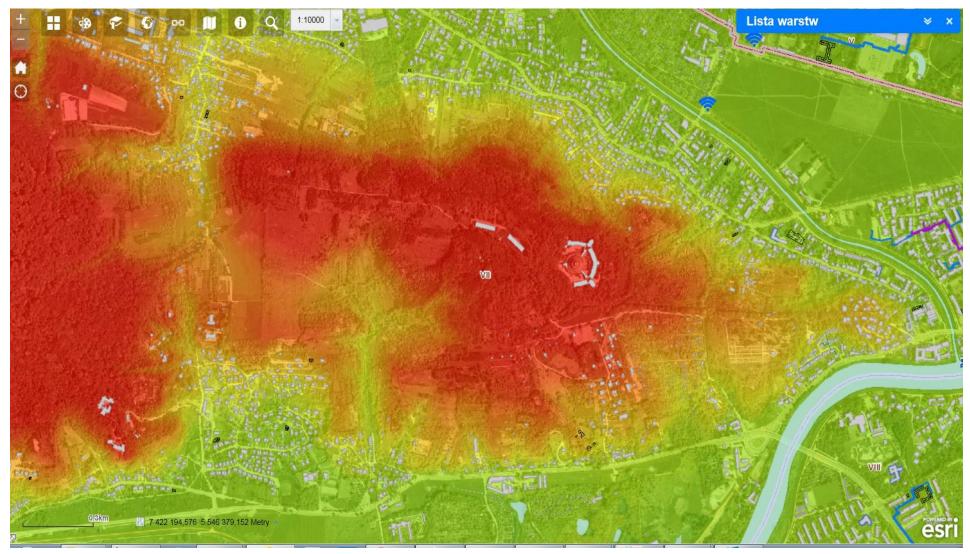

New editing tools

New ways to share data

Maps can be beautiful and colourful

Jacek Majchrowski the Mayor of the city of Kraków invites you to use the Municipal Spatial Information System

msip.um.krakow.pl

